

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN US INSURANCE REGULATION AND EMERGING ISSUES IN THE US MARKET

Course Description

The purpose of this training course is to provide an update on some of the recent regulatory and other developments in the US.

Target Audience

Underwriters, brokers, managing agents and those with some knowledge of US Regulation who wish to learn of recent developments.

Course Format

The course will be run as an interactive presentation with discussion.

Course Content

Recent Developments in US Insurance Regulation

- McCarran-Ferguson Act / Antitrust Exemption Legislation
- Survey of Federal Requirements
- Federal Acts and Regulations
- Federal Agency Oversight
- Implementation of Federal Laws
- State Compliance in 2011
 - Regulatory Hot Spots
 - Litigation Accountability
- National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) Initiatives
 - Reinsurance Credit
 - Solvency Modernization
 - Solvency II Equivalency
- Broker Compensation

Emerging Issues

- National Flood Insurance Program
- Taxation of Offshore Premium
- Chinese Drywall Update
- Social Media and Advertising

IMC Events Ltd

2 The Old Vicarage, Manor Road, Goring, Oxfordshire RG8 9DR

+44 (0)1491 872 839 +44 (0)7712 482212

- Electronic Transactions in Insurance
- Climate Change
- Catastrophic Initiatives
 - Mitigation Bills
 - Tax Credit
- Florida 2011 Legislative Session
- Multi-State Legislative Briefing

Presenter Fred E. Karlinsky, Esq.

Fred E. Karlinsky is a shareholder in the Florida-based law and governmental consulting firm of Colodny, Fass, Talenfeld, Karlinsky & Abate. Mr. Karlinsky, who engages in sophisticated regulatory and compliance matters on a nationwide basis, focuses his practice on insurance regulatory and transactional matters, and governmental affairs. Ranked among the top U.S. insurance law firms for consecutive years by Reactions Magazine, Colodny, Fass, Talenfeld, Karlinsky & Abate was also named as one of the top lobbying firms in Florida by Florida Trend magazine, the State's pre-eminent business publication. Prominent in his role as the Florida lobbyist for the Property and Casualty Insurers Association of America and lead lobbyist and General Counsel to the Florida Property and Casualty Association, Mr. Karlinsky has been a primary strategist in all types of Florida insurance-related legislative initiatives, including homeowners, automobile, workers' compensation, medical malpractice and other lines of property and casualty, and life and health. His insurance regulatory work includes consulting with clients on various reinsurance matters. A Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales, Mr. Karlinsky is admitted to practice in all Florida state and federal trial and appellate courts, the United States Supreme Court, United States Tax Court and the United States Court of Compensation Claims. He is also an Adjunct Professor of Insurance Law at Florida State College of Law, where he co-teaches a course on insurance regulatory law he helped to create.

Date 21st June 2012

Time 9.30am - 5.00pm

Venue London EC3

Fee £325.00 +VAT

Bookings To reserve a place on this course please contact Tony Gregory
 Email: tony.gregory@imc-seminars.com
 Telephone: +44 (0)1491 872 839 / +44 (0)7712 482212

IMC Events Ltd

2 The Old Vicarage, Manor Road, Goring, Oxfordshire RG8 9DR
 +44 (0)1491 872 839 +44 (0)7712 482212